

House of Italy

Description

House of Italy is a non-profit association based in Basel. It is supported by companies and personalities with an Italian background. With our services, we strive to give Italy and Switzerland new economic impulses and contribute to the dissemination of Italian culture and language.

House of Italy offers an ideal platform for founding and developing Swiss branches of Italian companies. House of Italy makes its large network available to you for this purpose.

Purpose

The purpose of the association is to:

- assist Italian companies promoting their product and service in Switzerland;
- help Italian companies to settle down in Switzerland;
- broaden Italian language and culture in Switzerland;
- bundle the expertise of Italian-born people in the interest of Italy and Switzerland;
- systematically collect interesting facts from politics, society and economy and make it available to institutions and companies in Italy.

Become a member of the Association House of Italy, if you wish to support and endorse its purpose.
